

A MORE MEANINGFUL BREW

Summit Maibock.

Lucky for us, monks were as devoted to beer as they were to chastity.

Behind the brew:

- Strong style was first brewed by monks fasting during Lent
- The official beer for May Day celebrations
- Moravian 37 malts and Czech Saaz hops give it a toasted sweetness with light spicy notes
- Nicknamed “liquid bread” for its malty, full-bodied character

specs

MALTS USED	Moravian 37, Munich
HOPS USED	Saaz, Mt. Hood
YEAST	German Lager
ORIGINAL GRAVITY	15.0° Plato
BITTERING UNITS	40
ALCOHOL BY VOLUME	6.5%
COLOR	Dark blonde
FOOD PAIRINGS	Pretzels, white cheddar, sausage, ribs, pork and smoked meat

Enjoyed in Spring,
in bottles and draught

12 OZ. SINGLE

SIX PACK

TWELVE PACK